

16 WARRIORS NAMED TO ALL-CONFERENCE FOOTBALL TEAMS

Football | Thu, Nov. 21, 2019

WICHITA, Kan. - The Kansas Collegiate Athletic Conference is pleased to announce the 2019 Football All-Conference selections and individual award winners as voted on by the head coaches. Sterling College had 16 Warriors make the lists.

Cevon Mitchell-Ford (SR/Sacramento, Calif.) was a unanimous All-KCAC First Team running back for Sterling. Mitchell-Ford finished second in the KCAC in Rushing, leading the Warriors with 806 rushing yards, averaging 89.6 yards per game. He had eight touchdowns on the year and ended the season ranked 22nd in the NAIA in Rushing Yards per Game (89.6) and 31st in Total Rushing (806).

Rigo Guzman (SR/Coachella, Calif.) was selected as a unanimous All-KCAC First Team offensive lineman. Guzman was a key piece of the Warrior offensive line, leading the Warriors up front and helping set the tone for the offense.

Twon Collymore (SO/Manning, S.C.) was a unanimous All-KCAC First Team defensive back for the Warriors. Collymore finished second in the KCAC with six interceptions on the year, returning one for a touchdown. He collected a total of 32 tackles on the season and had a total of 13 pass breakups on the year. Collymore finished the season 2nd in the NAIA in Interceptions per Game (0.7), 5th in Total Interceptions (6), and 9th in Passes Defended per Game (1.4)

Kwame Sexton (JR/Oklahoma City, Okla.) was an All-KCAC First Team selection at defensive back. Sexton led the Warrior defense with 89 tackles on the year, good for third in the KCAC. His 8.9 Tackles per Game ranked 41st in the NAIA. Sexton was also selected as an Honorable Mention selection at punt returner. He had 12 punt returns on the season for 66 yards with a long of 30. He ranked 25th in the NAIA in Punt Return Yards per Attempt (5.50). He also earned the KCAC Defensive Player of the Week award earlier in the season.

Eric Butler (SR/Wichita Falls, Texas) was an All-KCAC First Team selection at utility for Sterling. Butler played multiple positions this season for the Warriors, spending time at wide receiver and quarterback for SC. He had a total of 776 yards of offense this season, finishing with 101 yards rushing and 675 passing yards. He had one rushing touchdown and eight passing touchdowns. Butler was also an Honorable Mention selection at wide receiver for the Warriors. He was second on the team with 37 receptions and finishes the season with 475 yards and three touchdowns.

Janson Robeson (JR/Gainesville, Texas) was an All-KCAC Second Team selection at tight end. Robeson had big plays throughout the season to help the Warriors set up scoring plays, while also being a key blocker up front. He finished the season with seven receptions for a total of 129 yards, good for an average of 18.4 yards per catch.

Layne Becker (JR/Mulvane, Kan.) was a All-KCAC Second Team selection at offensive line. Becker, Honorable Mention selection last season, had a major part in helping Sterling establish the run game throughout the season. He was a solid force for the Warriors offensive line and was a key leader this season for Sterling.

Melvin Irby (SR/Los Angeles, Calif.) was an All-KCAC Second Team defensive line selection for the Warriors. Irby was third in the KCAC in Sacks per Game, finishing the season with 7.5, good for just under one sack per game. He finished the season fourth on the team in tackles with a total of 42 tackles, including 12.5 for a loss of 55 yards. He also had three fumble recoveries this season for SC. Irby ended the year ranked 20th in the NAIA in Sacks per Game (0.8), 25th in Total Sacks (7.5), and 47th in Tackles For Loss per Game (1.3)

Nicholas McGrew (SR/Oak View, Calif.) was an All-KCAC Second Team at linebacker. McGrew was second on the team in tackles, with a total of 80. He led the Warriors in tackles for loss with 13 for 53.5 yards. He had a total of 6.5 sacks and forced two fumbles on the year for SC. McGrew finished the season ranked 37th in the NAIA in Fumbles Forced per Game, 39th in Sacks per Game (0.7), 42nd in Total Sacks (6.5), 46th in Total Tackles for Loss (13), and 47th in Tackles For Loss per Game (1.3). He was also named the KCAC Defensive Player of the Week during the season.

Preston Patten (JR/Augusta, Kan.) was an All-KCAC Second Team punter for Sterling. Patten had an excellent season on punting duties, finishing the season with 40 punts for 1,559 yards. He had an average of 39 yards per punt and had long of 77 during the season. Patten finished the year ranked 19th in the NAIA in Punt Yards per Game (39.0). He also earned KCAC Special Team Player of the Week honors during the season.

Cedrick Phillips (SR/Stockton, Calif.) was an All-KCAC Honorable Mention quarterback for SC. Phillips finished the year with a total of 1,655 yards of offense, rushing for 347 yards and passing for 1,308 yards. He had a total of 16 touchdowns, throwing for nine, rushing for six, and one receiving score. Phillips ranked 40th in the NAIA in Total Offense Yards per Game with 206.9 yards. He also was 44th in Pass Efficiency (122.7) and 49th in Passing Yards per Game with 163.5 yards. Phillips also was named the KCAC Offensive Player of the Week earlier in the season.

Shaheem Sanders (SR/Rock Hill, S.C.) was an All-KCAC Honorable Mention wide receiver for the Warriors. Sanders was third on the team with 22 receptions for 357 yards. He had a total of six touchdowns, including a big-time catch and score in Sterling's overtime victory over Southwestern this season.

J.T. Duree (SO/Hutchinson, Kan.) was an All-KCAC Honorable Mention defensive lineman. Duree finished the year with 22 tackles, including three for a loss. He had two sacks and recovered two fumbles this season for the Warriors. Duree was also credited with a blocked kick on the year.

Brayden Lock (SO/Hutchinson, Kan.) was an All-KCAC Honorable Mention at linebacker. Lock was third on the team in tackles, with a total of 57. He finished with 7 tackles for a loss of 22.7 yards and added 1.5 sacks. He also had three fumble recoveries on the season for the Warriors.

Dwight Wilkerson (SO/Middleton, N.J.) was an All-KCAC Honorable Mention at defensive back for Sterling. Wilkerson finished the year fifth on the team in tackles with 35. He had a total of 3.5 for a loss and 0.5 sacks. Wilkerson also had two interceptions and seven pass breakups on the season.

Chance Whitehead (SO/Augusta, Kan.) was an All-KCAC Honorable Mention kick returner for SC. Whitehead had a total of 12 kick returns for 250 yards this season, good for an average of 20.8 yards per return. He had a long of 40 on the year and helped the Warriors set up strong field position for the offense. Whitehead ranked 40th in the NAIA in Kick Off Return Yards per Attempt (20.8)

The (3) Kansas Wesleyan University Coyotes are the 2019 KCAC Regular Season Champions with a perfect 10-0 conference record. Myers Hendrickson, the Coyotes' head coach, was named KCAC Coach of the Year by his peers.

Johnny Feauto of Kansas Wesleyan is the 2019 KCAC Player of the Year, following a senior season where he led the KCAC in passing (322.7 yards per game/64.1 completion percentage). Defensive Player of the Year honor goes to the conference sack leader, Shaq Bradford - for the second-straight season, who totaled 18.0 sacks on the season (1.6 sacks per game).

Following a season where he was named Player of the Year, Demarco Prewitt of Kansas Wesleyan earned this season's Offensive Player of the Year. Prewitt led the conference in rushing with 1269 total rushing yards, averaging 115.4 yards per game and running in a conference-high 22 touchdowns so far this season.

Bethel's Logan DeMond was named Special Teams Player of the Year, while teammate Chantz Scurry is the Dr. Ted Kessinger Champion of Character award recipient. Kansas Wesleyan's John Michaletti earns the Assistant Coach of the Year award.
