Wins Over Oxford

By Steve Kuntz

A cold first half defeated the Mulvane Wildcats, 55 to 50, Tuesday night at Oxford. At half time the Wildcats' first squad was down, 33-16.

The second half proved a completely different story as Mulvane out-scored Oxford by 12 points. As the Wildcats came on the floor the second half they not only out-scored Oxford but were superior on the boards. Brauser led the scoring for Mulvane with 14, followed by McKnight and Hill with 12, and Bally with 7. Mulvane came within three points with seconds to go before finally dropping by 5 points.

In the preliminary game Mulvane's B team chalked up its second win of the season, 41-35. Holding a narrow 17-15 lead at the half the Wildcats' second squad added 4 more points to hold the final lead of 6. Nichols led the scoring attack with 13. He was followed closely for honors by McKee with 11 and Masters with 9.
