

Wildcats Down Caldwell, 65-49

The Mulvane Wildcats return to their home court Friday night when they meet the Valley Center Hornets in a league game. After playing their last two games away, the Wildcats now have four home games in succession.

On Tuesday night the Wildcats went to Caldwell for a non-league tilt, and downed the Bluejays by a score of 65 to 49. Mulvane took the lead in the first quarter and at halftime sported a 31 to 22 advantage. Eight Wildcat players figured in the scoring with Kimble dunking in 26 points, followed by Wenzel with 18, and Darrell Reed with 11.
