

Cat Boys Swept

Playing what coach Charlie Mason called "our best game of the year" wasn't enough for the Mulvane boys basketball club Tuesday night, Jan. 6, at Buhler. The Crusaders blasted their way to an 86-67 triumph and extended Mulvane's losing string to six games this season.

"We played our best ball," said Mason. "Offensively, we scored 67 points, had four in double figures and hit about 55 percent from the field. Defensively, we played man-to-man and played our best defense. It goes down as another loss but we improved. We did a lot of things right."

Senior Brent Iverson paced the Wildcats in scoring with 13 points. Junior Dale Landes and senior Kevin Burke each added 12 points and Greg Hamilton added another 10.

Buhler posted three victories Tuesday, also turning back the Cat B-team, 70-51, and the sophomores, 60-42.

In the B-team game, Joey Belden found his scoring touch for 14 points and Brian Pope added 10 points. The sophomore Wildcats were paced by the 10-point efforts of Allen Whitmer and Chris Hicks.
