

Wildcats Down Caldwell, 48-45

Mulvane, who now sports a six win, two lost record in overall competition, downed Caldwell 48-45 in a non-league basketball tilt here Tuesday night.

Mulvane's post man, Jerry Leatherman, sank 18 points to take scoring honors for the evening. Lew Worley of Caldwell dropped in 15.

Leatherman posted five field goals and a pair of charity tosses in the second quarter as the Wildcats stayed in front of the Bluejays from the opening moments. Leatherman and Dick Peckham had their hands full controlling the boards all evening. Caldwell was down at the half, trailing by a 15 point margin, 30 to 15.

Caldwell came back strong in the third period to erase the 15 point deficit and give the Wildcats a scare before falling to the final score of 48 to 45.

Jerry Kimble scored 14 points as the Mulvane B team won 39 to 36.

The box score:

Peckham	4	3	11
Kincaid	1	2	4
Leatherman	7	4	18
Shoup	2	2	6
Greiner	1	1	3
Dunbar	2	0	4
