

MHS Cats Sink At Buhler

Once his forces fell behind quickly, 20-3, in the first quarter, Mulvane High School boys basketball coach Charlie Mason knew he was in deep water.

The undefeated Buhler Crusaders got their assembly line going early and had an easy time whipping Mulvane, 92-48, Tuesday night, Jan. 11, in a Chisholm Trail League game at Buhler.

The Cat junior varsity also hit the skids, 62-43.

"As far as I'm concerned, that was the best Class 5A team in the State of Kansas," said Mason. "They just keep coming at you." It was 27-8 after one period.

Junior Todd Travis notched 16 points and a team-high six rebounds. Sophomore Lonny Travis was the only other double-figure scorer, hitting 13.

Four players scored eight points apiece for Coach Dennis Tegethoff's Cat jayvees--Greg Quigley, Terry Reusser, Bo Jones and David Kramer.

The Wildcats came off their Christmas break Friday night, Jan. 7, with a rusty performance at home against Augusta. The Orioles trounced Mulvane, 52-36, in what was Mulvane's worst offensive performance of the season.

"It's the worst ball game we've played all year from a team standpoint," complained Mason. "We didn't have just one player off, we had everybody. I thought we were ready but obviously, we weren't."

Shooting, or lack of it, was the biggest factor in the Wildcat downfall. Mason's
