

Wildcats Dropped

By Goddard

The Mulvane Wildcats dropped a close game last week to Goddard as Mulvane opened play in the Chisholm Trail League.

Goddard won the hard fought game 52-45 to revenge an earlier 75-74 win by Mulvane on its home court in a double overtime.

The Wildcats came back from trailing 14 points in the third quarter to within one point of Goddard with only about two minutes to play.

Goddard sunk four freethrows in the last minute of the game to ice the victory.

Mulvane players played hard and pressed Goddard throughout the game.

Kent Hughes was high scorer for the Wildcats with 12 points. He was followed closely by Jeff Crawford with 11 points. Ed Stunkel scored six points with Robbie Fry, Brad Butts, Ronnie Turner and Mike Alumbaugh each scoring four points.

This Friday the Wildcats take on a tough Valley Center in the home court. Valley Center earlier this year in a 73-71 game in an overtime. This will be their league game for each team.

The sophomore game will be at 5 p.m. with the B-Team game at 6:30 p.m. and the varsity game at 8 p.m.

During the halftime of the varsity game the local Optimist

Club members will be honored.

Valley Center is expected to be tough, Coach Larry Thomas said. The team dropped a 74-54 game last week to Kingman in league play.

Both Mulvane and Valley Center are 0-1 on the season in league play.

Mulvane is 2-5 on the season to this point.

In non-league play Tuesday the Wildcats will take on a tough Andale team which has lost only one game so far this season.

Here again, Thomas said, the Wildcats will be facing a really tough team and an important game for the season record.
