

Wildcat Lulls

Good For Goddard

Lulls in the first and third quarter enabled Goddard to put Mulvane to sleep in a Chisholm Trail League basketball game Friday night, Jan. 18.

The undefeated Lions, No. 1 ranked Class 5A team in Kansas, thundered to an 85-61 victory over Mulvane. The loss dropped Mulvane's record to 3-5 and 1-3 in CTL games. Goddard, coached by first-year coach Terry Boren, went to 7-0 and 4-0.

"I was pleased with our effort for the most part," said Mulvane coach Charlie Mason. "They were the No. 1 team in the state and we were down only by 10 at halftime. The final score is deceiving, too, because it looks like we got blown out but I don't feel it was that way."

The Lions came out of the blocks quickly, jumping to a 20-8 lead in quarter No. 1 but the Cats regrouped and out-scored Goddard, 24-22, in the second quarter. Goddard reasserted itself, however, in the third quarter and took charge.

"In the first and third quarters, we didn't run our offense to the point of scoring," said Mason, who also is in his first year at the helm. "We got a lot of easy shots but they didn't fall and we let them have four or five easy baskets because we were trying to go so hard to the boards that we didn't have a safety back. It was a matter of not thinking."

Mason also pointed to Goddard's full-court pressure defense which hurt the Cats early even though Mulvane finished up with only 23 turnovers to 28 for Goddard. "We couldn't buy a basket especially early," said Mason.

Gary Fortner, making his start, scored 14 points for Mulvane and Ed Nelson, the man he replaced, came off the bench to add 10. Guard Troy Dossey was the only other Mulvane player in double figures, scoring 10. Top scorer, Mark Storey, was held to only nine points.

Goddard thumped Mulvane, 55-47, in a B-team game. Brent Iverson scored 12 points and Darryl Brueggeman added 10 for the Wildcats.

The Mulvane sophomores also had a rough night, as Goddard blasted its way to an 82-51 triumph. Vic Marcelle scored 16 points for Mulvane and Dale Landes hit twin figures with 11.

Mulvane will open its run at the Roadrunner Classic at Chaparral at 7 p.m. tonight in opening-round play.
