

Wildcats Edge By Augusta 57-56

Edging by the Augusta Orioles by a slim 57-56 margin, the Mulvane Wildcats retained their first place standing in the Chisholm Trail League Friday night, January 20, at the Mulvane gymnasium.

Mulvane's Jerry Webster racked up 26 points on 9 field goals and 8 throws from the charity line, rating first in the scorers' column, followed by Dusenbury of Augusta with 19 points on 8 field goals and 3 free throws. Hill of Augusta scored 16 points, followed by Jim Prins of Mulvane with 14 and Augusta's Stroud had 11 points.

Sophomore Dickie Peckham was fouled in the last 9 seconds of play with the score at 56-56. Dickie made the point and kept the Wildcats from having to play an overtime period and facing a possible defeat.

Mulvane had their highest percentage of free throws made this season with 72 percent on 18 attempted and 13 made. Augusta attempted 23 and made 14 for a percentage of 61.
