

Wildcats Win 11th Straight Game

The Mulvane, Wildcats started fast then went into their delayed game to drop Caldwell last Tuesday evening 41-30 in a basketball game in the local gym.

The Wildcats put on the pressure in the first quarter and jumped to a 12-1 lead as the quarter ended.

Caldwell started hitting in the second quarter and the half ended Mulvane, 24, Caldwell 16.

Mulvane controlled the ball in the third quarter and held a 35-25 lead.

The Wildcats put on a stall in most of the fourth quarter and came out on top 41-30.

Much credit should go to Mulvane for their fine defensive play. They have held opponents to a low 41.2 points a game. In both games with Caldwell, Jerry Webster has held Stewart Luder, Caldwell's leading scorer, to no points.

The next game for Mulvane is on Friday, February 11 at Clearwater.
