In the junior varsity game, VC snapped Mulvane's modest two-game winning streak by nailing the Wildcats, 63-42, and in the sophomore game, Valley made it a sweep by dropping Mulvane, 69-43.

"We tried to slow it down against them again, hanging onto the ball to get the best show but we didn't make the shots and fell behind," said Charlie Mason, veteran MHS boys coach. "They flat took it to us in the second half, playing their starters til the end of the game."

Junior Jeff Parson, the club's No. 1 scorer, led the way with 10 points. Senior Andy Mackey scored four points and both J.J. Dunn and Chris Wagoner had three.

Larry Dixson paced the Cat jayvee effort with eight points. Brian Heinrichs scored seven points and teammates David Boyer, Jason Russell and Chad Carpenter had six points apiece.

Daniel Myers had 10 points to top the MHS sophomores. Brian Strack scored nine, Robert Glaser dumped in eight and Bill Humphries hit seven for the Cats.

Mulvane will be at home Friday night, Feb. 8, for the annual Winter Homecoming game. Augusta will be the opponent.
