

Best Ball Not Enough For Boys

Playing perhaps their best game of the season wasn't good enough for the Mulvane High School boys Tuesday night, Feb. 12, as Maize slipped into town and out with an 86-69 CTL victory.

Mulvane played the Eagles even in the first quarter but it was all Maize after that, although the 69 points was the "high water mark" offensively for the Wildcats this season.

Junior Jeff Parson scored a game-high 25 points. Toby Hoving scored 17 points, Andy Mackey had 10 and Jarrod Oldridge scored nine.

Maize also prevailed in the junior varsity game, 62-48, but the Cats took a 35-34 win in the sophomore contest.

Judson Spicer's 16 points and eight from Larry Dixon led the MHS jayvees. Jeremy Kendrick scored 12 points and Brian Heinrichs had five for as the Mulvane sophomores improved their record to 4-6. Kendrick's three-of-four free throws in the last minute provided the winning margin.

Arch-enemy Augusta pulled the plug on the Mulvane Winter Homecoming festivities Friday night, Feb. 9, by sweeping to a 79-45 verdict over the Wildcat boys in a Chisholm Trail League Division I game.

The night wasn't a total loss, though, as Coach Dale Landes' junior varsity boys captured their third victory in four games by dumping the Orioles, 53-41. The Cat sophomores were bounced, 51-36, by Augusta.

"I don't know what you can say," lamented Mason. "When you can't stop them from rebounding the ball, it's pretty tough. They had 14 offensive boards in the first half and I think 12 of them went back in. It's something we work on every practice but you can't simulate a lot of things—like size."

The game was over quickly as the Orioles broke to a 14-6 lead, then outscored the Cats, 27-6, in the second period for a 41-12 halftime margin.

The Cat offense picked up the pace a bit after scoring 12 points in the first half. Junior Jeff Parson scored a team-high 16 points but was the only Wildcat in double figures. Sophomore J.J. Dunn and junior Jarrod Oldridge scored five points each while seniors Andy Mackey and Brock Davis hit for four points apiece.

In the jayvee contest, MHS sprinted to an 11-point lead at halftime, then pulled away in the last quarter. Larry Dixon and Chad Carpenter paced the Cat game with 18 and 12 points, respectively. Steve Nelson scored eight points, Guy Alvarez had six and Dunn had five for the Cat jayvees.

The Mulvane sophs couldn't keep up with Augusta. Robert Glaser scored nine points, Jeremy Kendrick scored eight, Daniel Myears popped in seven and Bill Humphries scored six for the sophomores.

The Wildcats will be busy this week with a make-up game scheduled tonight (Feb. 14) at home against Goddard. They'll play another CTL game Friday night, Feb. 15, at Buhler before coming home for their final week which starts with Wellington here Tuesday, Feb. 19. The last regular season game of the year will be Thursday, Feb. 21, when talented Andale comes to Mulvane.
