

Home Becomes 'Turnover City'

"Home, Sweet Home" was "Turnover City" Tuesday night, Feb. 13, for the Mulvane High School girls and boys. Goddard came to town for a defining game and the Lions defined the difference between a upper division finish and a middle-of-the-road finish for the MHS Wildcats.

The varsity boys game was over in the first quarter against the powerful Lions. Goddard spanked the Wildcat boys, 84-30, after sprinting out to a 23-7 lead after one quarter.

The MHS boys tumbled to 1-15 on the season and were quickly out of the game after the Lions posted back-to-back 23-point quarters to take a 46-21 lead by halftime, making the most of their pressure defense and transition game.

Senior Chris Gerhardt had another fine offensive game, scoring 15 points. Luke Gunter scored five points and both Jonathan Reed and Ryan McKnight had four-point games.

Gerhardt led the Cat boys in the scoring column against the Trojans, hitting for 14 points. Gunter scored six points and both Jeremy Adams and McKnight chipped in with four points apiece.
