

Wildcats Claw Clearwater 72-60

The Mulvane Wildcats reached their highest score this season as they clawed their way to 72-60 win over the Clearwater Indians, Friday night, February 10, and increased their record to 12 wins and 2 losses.

The Wildcats took the lead from the start and kept it all through the game. They could have increased their lead, had not the Mulvane coach, Jim Parker, run in reserves in the last three minutes. Mulvane was ahead by 19 points, 70-51 until the reserves came in.

Jerry Webster paced the Wildcats with an outstanding 36 points. Although Jerry was guarded very well, he couldn't be stopped from making 16 field goals.

Pacing the Indians was Duane Vinning with 22 points on 8 field-goals and 6 free throws. Van Tarr and Jim Prins of Mulvane put in 13 and 10 points respectively. For Clearwater, Bill Nickelson put in 15 points on 2 fieldgoals and the evening's high of 11 freethrows.
