

Wildcats Down Andale, 87-56

The Mulvane High School Wildcats strengthened their basketball record last Friday night at Andale by winning in a "going away" contest 87-56. The Bees made it a double event by winning their test 49-29.

Jerry Leatherman, rangy center of the Wildcats' club, garnered high point honors for the night with a grand total of 24 points. Twenty-two of these pointers came by field goals and he added a couple from the Mulvanites with 18, 16 via the free-toss line for good measure.

Reed was second high pointer for field goals and a couple of charities.
