

Lose Close Game To Valley Center

The Mulvane high school Wildcats lost a nip and tuck Chisholm Trail league game at Valley Center last Friday night by a score of 41 to 40.

Valley Center held a 24 to 21 halftime lead, and at the third quarter stop the score was tied, 32 all. In the final period, the Wildcats hit three field goals and two of their three free throws for a total of eight points. Valley hit only two field goals, but made good on all five free throws awarded them to give them their margin of victory.

Terry Richardson led the Mulvane scoring with 14 points, followed by Dave Farber with 10.

The Mulvane B team won their game over the Valley Center reserves, 53 to 47. After coming up with a tied score in the first quarter, Mulvane moved ahead for the remainder of the contest. At the third quarter stop they led 35 to 29.

Leading the scoring for Mulvane was Bill Lowrance with 15 points, followed by Gordon Long with 11.
