

Lose Game To Valley Center, 65-50

Pulling away in the third period Valley Center romped to a 65 to 50 victory over the Mulvane high school Wildcats in a Chisholm Trail league basketball game here last Friday night.

The first quarter ended 18 to 17 for Valley, and at halftime the Hornets led 37 to 33 over Mulvane. In the third period, Valley Center exploded for 19 points, while the Wildcats went cold and got only four points for the quarter.

Farber led the scoring for Mulvane and the game with a total of 20 points. Harrison was high for Valley with 17 points.

The Mulvane B team also lost their game with the Valley Center reserves, 64 to 38. Valley chalked up 30 points at the free throw line.

Mulvane will close out its regular season of play this Friday night when they are host to Caldwell, in a non-league game.

The following week Mulvane will play in the regional tourney to be held at Valley Center.
