

Game Still 4 Quarters Long

Mulvane Finds Out Vs. Goddard

Count 'em. One. Two. Three. Four. There definitely are four quarters in a high school basketball game.

Mulvane High School coach Charlie Mason would have liked to have seen three of them disappear Monday night, Feb. 18, in a make-up game at Goddard. The Chisholm Trail League bout turned out to be only a warm-up for the Lions as Goddard roared to a 77-47 conquest of Mulvane.

The loss, seventh in the last nine games for Mulvane, caused the Wildcats' record to skid to 5-9 and 2-5 in Division I play.

"For eight minutes, we gave them everything in the book," said Mason. "We had them most of the first quarter but then we got taken out of our offense. They put tremendous pressure on our wings and point guard and consequently, we couldn't make our offense go."

And consequently, Goddard out-scored Mulvane, 22-8, in the second frame and 24-10 in the third to put the game on ice.

"Their man-to-man pressure just stepped up and we couldn't move the ball," added Mason. That pressure wiped out the Cats' best shooting game in quite a while--they hit 20 of 42 (but Goddard was even hotter, making 30 of 53).

Mark Storey again carried the Cat offense with 14 points. Both Ed Nelson and Gary Fortner added eight points.

Goddard swept both the B-team and sophomore games, too. The Lion B-teamers racked up a 66-49 victory. Mulvane fell in the sophomore game, 60-50.

The Mulvane B-team was led by Gary Elston, who scored nine points, and Brent Iverson and Greg Cox, both hitting eight.

Coach Craig Hughes' sophomores ended their season with a 0-7 record as Dale Landes scored 12 points and Vic Marcelle 10.

The Wildcats will travel to Andover
