

Valley Center Defeats Mulvane

(by Gary Kuntz)

The Valley Center Hornets defeated the Mulvane Wildcats last Friday evening by the score of 63-45. The Hornets defense was excellent as they scored seven more field goals than the Wildcats scored.

The Wildcats had a slow start as they only got eight points in the first quarter. Valley Center got sixteen points in the first eight minutes and they were well on their way to victory. Don Reed was the Wildcats top scorer in the first quarter with five points.

The Wildcats increased their offense in the second period with 16 points. However, Valley did a little bit better with 22 points. Larry Norden got seven points for the Wildcats in the second period. The half-time score was 38-24.

The Hornets played a slow, careful type of basketball in the second half. Their plan worked well as they outscored the Wildcats 25-21 in the last half. The top scorers in the second half for the Wildcats were Dick Bradford with eight points and Don McKean with six points.

Scoring honors for the game went to Valley Center's Woody Russell with 25 points. The Wildcats top point producer was Larry Norden with 12 points.

The Mulvane "B" team also lost by a score of 47-41. The junior Wildcats were outscored in every period. The top scorer for Coach Culbertson's team was David Boone with nine points.

The Wildcats travel to Caldwell Friday night for their last regular game of the season.

The Wildcats will then participate in the district tournament at Caldwell. The Wildcats will host the regional tournament.
