

Boys Knocked Out Of Hosting

Put your foot out there, then shoot! That's what the Mulvane High School boys did Tuesday night, although they had plenty of help.

The Cat boys went from possibly hosting a first round game in the Chaparral Sub-State to having to go to Douglass for a first round game. Andale rallied in the last quarter to clip the Cats, 47-41, when Mulvane went cold in the final quarter and the Indians came from behind with a 15-5 run.

Andover Tuesday, that gave the Orioles the No. 3 seed and Douglass and Mulvane, both tied with 7-12 record, were dropped a notch. Douglass beat Mulvane earlier and that was the determining factor in Douglass being seeded No. 4 and Mulvane No. 5. The Cats will go to Douglass Monday for a 7 p.m. game in the first round of the Chaparral 4A Sub-State.

The Wildcats appeared to be focused against Andale but the last quarter swoon enabled the Indians to rally for the season sweep. Randy Johnson led the Wildcat scoring with 21 points. Jesse Marksberry scored 14 points and both Jake Wilkinson and Garrett Hennes scored six points.

There was both a JV game in Mulvane Tuesday as well as a sophomore contest. Andale pounded the Cat JVs, 63-35, but the MHS sophomores had too much for Andale, 53-34.

Nick Pope scored nine points for Mulvane's JV team and Jared Rice scored five. Both Derek Paul and Ryan McKnight had four points.

The Mulvane sophs were paced by another big game by Chris Gerhardt with 20 points. Brian Love and McKnight scored 10 points each.

It was a familiar theme but one Coach Todd Barker is growing weary of. Hot early. Cold late. Another loss.

The Wildcat boys were the entertainment for the Rose Hill Homecoming Friday night, Feb. 19, and the Cats couldn't hold on down the stretch as the Rockets locked up the No. 1 seed in sub-state play next week by throttling the Cats, 55-49, for the second time in a row.

"We shot the lights out of things in the first half, then we came out in the second half and couldn't buy a bucket," said Barker. "They had an extended halftime for homecoming and we cooled off considerably. After halftime, they came out all fired up and shot the ball well. It's the same scenario we've had for the last couple of games."

The Wildcats bolted out the door, taking an 18-10 lead after just one period and still held that eight-point lead at intermission. But something happened during the layoff. Rose Hill officials must have turned up the air conditioning in the Cat dressing room because in the third quarter, Mulvane managed only two points. The Rockets finally took the lead early in the 4th quarter and held off a furious comeback attempt despite a technical foul.

The Cats had good balance offensively. Senior Garrett Hennes had 14 points and so did junior Jesse Marksberry. Guard Brian Dinkel had 11 points, including three threes in the first half to spark the Cats. Randy Johnson finished with eight points.

In the junior varsity game against the Rockets, 12 players scored as the Cats rallied with a 21-point 4th quarter to take a 61-59 victory. Kyle McGuire's 10 points lifted the offense. Andy Hixson finished with eight points, James MacKay had six and Chris Brannon scored five.
