

Wildcats Bow Out Of Regional Tourney

Drawing the powerful Augusta Orioles as their opening round opponent in the Class A regional tourney at Circle, the Mulvane High School Wildcats went down to a 79 to 49 defeat Tuesday night. The loss eliminates Mulvane from the tournament and concludes their season of play.

Augusta got off to a 14 to 3 first period lead, and they continued to increase their margin throughout the contest.

Hill paced the Wildcat scoring effort with 15 points, Brauser had 13, Crawford hit for 10, McKee had 8, and Calcote made 3, to account for the Mulvane scoring. All 10 Wildcats on the tourney squad saw action in the game.
