

Beat Oxford In An Overtime Game

Coming from behind in the fourth period the Mulvane Wildcats downed Oxford 42 to 39 in an overtime to clinch their second straight victory in their 1957-58 season. The game was played at Oxford Tuesday night.

The Wildcats started slow but quickly improved as Dick Peckham sunk 15 points, 13 of which were in the second half. Baskets were exchanged as the first period ended at a 10 to 8 score in favor of the home team, Oxford. The Wildcats came back in the second period with Keith Greiner hitting from the outside to tie the score, but fouls by Peckham and Shoup put Oxford back in the lead where they held it for a 21 to 15 halftime lead.

Coming back in the third period, the Wildcats were fired up more than ever. Peckham scored easily while Gary Kincaid found the range hitting three field goals apiece in the third period. Floyd Shoup connected with a set and sophomore Jerry Kimble sunk a charity as the score was a close 31 to 29 at the close of the third counter. Opening the final period, Oxford missed a pair of free throws and Peckham put the Wildcats back in the game with a rebound and short shot. Leatherman and Kincaid hit charities while Peckham hit a pair of fielders to erase a six point conflict with a minute and 33 seconds left in the regulation period. The fourth quarter ended at a 37 to 37 deadlock.

In the three minute overtime, Dean Howard of Oxford, put Oxford ahead with a jump shot from the corner, but working on a tight zone defense of Oxford, Floyd Shoup was left open and scored on a short jump shot. The Wildcats pulled out ahead as Keith Greiner was fouled. Keith hit both free throws which clinched the game with Peckham adding an insurance bonus to the final 42 to 39 score.

Oxford won the reserve game 42 to 37. Bill Geist scored 12 points with Kimble and Dale Greiner each counting for 7 points.
