

Wildcats Edge By Planeview

Playing their hardest fought game yet this season, the Mulvane Wildcats edged by the Planeview Gremlins, Friday night, December 9, by an exciting 50-49 score on the Gremlins' court.

Jerry Webster led the list in scoring with 25 points. He was followed by Van Tarr with 13 points. Summers and Jackson of Planeview racked up 12 points each.

The Gremlins attempted 13 free throws and made seven for a percentage of 54, while Mulvane hit 12 out of 19 attempts for a percentage of 63.

The score was tied 26-26 at the half. In the last few seconds of the game with the score 48-50, Mulvane leading, the Gremlins saw their last chance of victory fizzle as Quinn was fouled, and made only one of his free throws.
