

Mulvane Loses To Halstead

In the opening round of the Haven invitational basketball tournament Monday night, the Mulvane Wildcats dropped their first game of the season when they lost a 45-44 decision to Halstead.

way, and scoring for the Wildcats was pretty well evenly divided. Deavers

It was a well played game all the and Summers both had 10 points each. Dickey had 9, Reusser made 8, and Galvan had 7.

In the second game of the evening Haven beat Harper by a score of 52-50.

On Tuesday night Mulvane played Harper for third place in the tourney, and Haven and Halstead played for the championship.

The tournament concluded play for the Mulvane team until after the Christmas holidays.