

Wildcats Drop Game To Valley Center

The Mulvane Wildcats dropped a 73-71 basketball game in an overtime last week against Valley Center, there.

Valley Center won the game with a last second score as the buzzer sounded to end the overtime.

The Wildcats, with a 2-3 record for the season, mulvane basketball

The Mulvane Wildcats dropped a 73-71 basketball game in an overtime last week against Valley Center, there.

Valley Center won the game with a last second score as the buzzer sounded to end the overtime.

The Wildcats, with a 2-3 record for the season, have lost two games this season with last second scores by opponents.

Robbie Fry led the Wildcats scoring with 23 points. He was closely followed by Kent Hughes who scored 21 points.

Ed Stunkel scored eight points and 15 rebounds to lead the Wildcats rebounds for the season.

Other scorers for the Wildcats were Mike Alumbaugh with eight points; Brad Sorensen, four points; Brad Butts, four points; Ron Turner, two points, and Jeff Crawford one point.

The Wildcats were down 11 points with four minutes to go in the game. They fought back to end the regular game with a 68-