

Mulvane SBers Slam Andover

The Mulvane softball team has only played nine innings over the past week, which is okay, as long as you don't lose.

The Wildcats won a pair of run-rule games at home against Andover Monday night, April 10, to improve their record to 4-2 overall, including 1-1 in AVCTL Division III. Mulvane won the opener 15-0 in just three innings, then won the nightcap 14-4 in six innings.

"We were able to take advantage of their pitching," said Wildcat head coach Charles Mason. "We got eight walks in each game and a number of wild pitches that scored runs. We swung the bats pretty well, and we didn't make any errors in either game. We made just a few mental mistakes, but that's the kind of thing you can correct in practice."

Mulvane scored 10 runs in the third inning of the opener to activate the rarely-used 15-run rule after three innings. Amy Phillips was 2-for-2 with a walk, three runs scored, and
