

Highly-Ranked Crusaders Crush Cat Girls

Bill Stinson simply gave a sigh of relief. His Mulvane High School girls basketballers were finished with Buhler, rather. Buhler was finished with the Wildcats. The Crusaders rolled to an easy Chisholm Trail League victory by a 79-38 count in Mulvane Tuesday night, Jan. 11.

"They're tough," said Stinson. "We wanted to slow them down but couldn't. It wasn't much of a game."

Mulvane was in the game in the first quarter but the Crusaders crushed the Cats behind a 31-point second quarter to take a 53-25 halftime lead and it was over.

Sophomore reserve Melody Carey pumped in 10 points and senior Nancy Gehring added eight for Mulvane. Tawnya Infinger had four points.

Even the Cat jayvees weren't exempt from a Buhler beating, the visitors hammering out a 58-19 victory. For Mulvane, Lori Meek topped scorers with eight points and Darla Reekie had four.

The shots wouldn't fall for Stinson's gals in their first game of 1983 and Augusta measured off a 36-26 verdict Friday night, Jan. 7, at Augusta. Meanwhile the Cat jayvees continued their roll by blasting Augusta, 39-17.

"We were getting the shots but they weren't going down," said Stinson. "They had a couple big girls inside and they did an effective job shutting down Nancy and Mary. When they get stopped, we have to depend on our outside people and they just didn't put

The Orioles smothered the MHS inside game, Gehring only scoring four points and Cole three. Overall, the Wildcats made only 20% of their field attempts, 10 of 44.

Junior Tawnya Infinger led the Wildcat scoring with 10 points and sophomore Melody Carey came off the bench to add six, all in the second half.

Lori Meek and Carey paced the jayvees. Meek scored nine points and Carey had eight. Lisa Jones finished with six.
