

Girls Hammered By Two Opponents

Buhler swamped Mulvane behind a 20-10 first quarter and went on to dominate the second half. The Wildcat girls in a Chisholm Trail league game Tuesday night at Buhler.

In the junior varsity contest, things were not so bad as the Wildcats were bombed, 15-15.

"Buhler is just a superior team," said Wildcat girls coach Bill Brown. "They're smart and look it. The 1-2-2 zone press was the key. They start using it in the 7th grade and know it by the time they get to high school. Also, they killed us on the boards. It's the first time this year when we have been out-classed on the boards. That was the big difference in the second quarter."

The Crusaders claimed 33 rebounds to only 22 for the Wildcats, who slipped to 1-6 on the year.

Only four players scored for Brown's gals. Junior Mary Cole led the club with 12 points and Nancy Gehring and sophomore Debbie McIntyre added six points each. Jay Kilpatrick scored two points.

Buhler jumped out to a 30-2 first quarter lead in the B-team game, then took the pressure off. Gwen Reekie scored a team-high four points for Mulvane and Traci Lawless added three.

Brown's forces were sluggish and lost their offensive thrust over the Christmas holiday, Augusta taking measure of the Wildcat girls, 49-16, Friday night, Jan. 8, the Cats' first game of the year.

Poor shooting marked the MHS loss. The Cats made only nine percent of their field attempts, five of 56. The Mulvane B-team didn't fare much better, hitting only 15% from the field in a 28-19 setback.

Juniors Mary Cole and Nancy Gehring paced the scoring, Cole with eight points and Gehring with four.

Coach Leah Fairchild's B-team couldn't find the bucket, either. Jay Kilpatrick, a newcomer, scored five points and sophomore Debbie McIntyre added four points.
