

Late Rally

Falls Short

For Cats

A late surge by the Mulvane High School girls came up short as Valley Center nipped the Wildcats, 26-25, in a Chisholm Trail League outing Tuesday night, Jan. 17, at Valley Center.

The loss dropped Mulvane's record to 3-6 overall and 1-3 in the Chisholm Trail. The Cats pranced to their first loop win of the year Friday, Jan. 13, at home by smearing Wellington, 46-30.

"We were ahead at halftime, playing really good defense and we felt good about what was happening," said Bill Stinson, the MHS coach. "Then, they pressured us full court in the 3rd quarter and we didn't handle it and fell well behind. Our girls rallied, though, and we could have won the ball-game. We felt good about our rally."

The Cats moved to within one point and intercepted a pass but couldn't get off a good shot.

Three players scored six points each to pace the Cats--Diane Mohnney, Tawnya Infinger and Lori Cox.

The Mulvane junior varsity also lost in a tight game, 14-13, with Theresa Graybeal's four points and five by Lisa Jones highlighting the offense. The game was shortened to two quarters because Valley Center had a limited number of players.

Stinson's troops had little trouble four nights earlier with winless Wellington, playing before a home crowd.

"We were kind of expecting to win because we felt we had better athletes than they did," emphasized Stinson.

The senior Infinger, quiet on the offensive side most of this season, exploded for a career-high 22 points, hitting eight of 10 free throws. Reekie captured 11 rebounds, scored seven points and had seven steals.

The Wildcats wasted little time, grinding out a 24-17 lead at halftime. They broke it open in the final quarter, out-scoring the Crusaders, 14-8.

Infinger had help offensively from Melody Carey, who had eight points, Reekie with seven and guard Diane Mohnney with six.

The Mulvane junior varsity had its hands full with Wellington, losing, 28-21. Terri Lawless scored six points and Theresa Graybeal had nine for the top two Cats.
