

Garden Plain, Goddard Batter Mulvane Girls

The on and off relationship with winning for the Mulvane High School girls basketballers is back off again. Both Garden Plain and Goddard turned out the lights on the Wildcat girls during the past week.

Garden Plain plowed the Cats under with a 54-36 shelling here Monday night, Jan. 17, and Goddard's late surge Friday night, Jan. 14, sent the Cats flying to a 54-34 defeat at Goddard.

The losses were the third and fourth in a row since two victories at the end of December and sent Coach Bill Stinson's club to 2-7 overall heading into the Mulvane Invitational which is to open Tuesday, Jan. 25. "We have just completed the toughest part of our schedule," said Stinson. Garden Plain is ranked No. 3 in the state and Buhler two games ago is also ranked. Goddard is a real good basketball team, too."

Unbeaten Garden Plain blasted off early, taking a 34-16 lead in the first half before Mulvane found its game.

Senior Mary Cole scored 12 points and guard Jay Kilpatrick had 10 for the Wildcats. Senior Nancy Gehring finished with five and sophomore Darla Reekie and Tawnya Infinger had four each.

At Goddard, Cole flipped in 14 points, Infinger had eight and Gehring scored seven.
