Mulvane ended several years of frustration Monday night, Feb. 18, as the MHS girls basketball team ended a Goddard jinx with a 43-37 victory in a Chisholm Trail League game in Mulvane.

"It was a big one for us because we'd played a good game for a while and because this team never had beaten Goddard," said Mulvane coach Bill Brown.

Mulvane out-scored the Lions, 11-3, in the third quarter and 16-10 in the last to come from behind. "Goddard was playing kind of a four-corner offense where they tried to delay but (Sandy) Whetstone and (Arlene) Reekie went out and put pressure on the ball and ate them up," said Brown. "They did an excellent job. I thought our second half was one of the best halves we've played since December."

Center Denise Standerfer led the scoring column with 12 points for Mulvane, which inched its mark to 8-7 overall and 4-4 in CTL games, and Reekie, a junior, added 11. Cindi Lawless finished with eight points.

The win over Goddard took some of the sting out of a loss Thursday, Feb. 14, at Valley Center, the Hornets coming out with a 45-32 decision.

The Wildcat B-team absorbed two defeats. Goddard's B-team shelled Mulvane, 56-17, and Valley Center edged the Cats, 34-30.

Kristi Lawless topped the Mulvane scoring in both games, hitting six points against the Lions and nine against Valley.
