

Wildcat Girls Getting Hot At Right Time Of Season

Let's talk paybacks. The Mulvane High School girls had one up their sleeve Tuesday night, Feb. 25, when Goddard came to town.

Reversing a 21-point loss in January, Coach Gregg Wolgast's girls clubbed Goddard in the second half on the way to a 60-49 thrashing. That improved the Cats' record to 6-14 overall and gave them a 4-8 record in the Chisholm Trail League.

In the junior varsity game, the Wildcats closed out a 5-14 year with a 49-46 loss to the Lions.

Junior sharpshooter Sheila Mills had the biggest buckets, though. She poured in 10 points in the final quarter and finished with a team-high 28 points. Senior Denise Wilson scored 12 points, Tricia Turner had six and Maxey, Schultz and Lee Banzet all had four-point games.

In the jayvee contest, Goddard came from a point down at halftime to pull away down the stretch. Maxey scored 16 points, Watson had 12, Kendra Mow scored five with Heather Pearman getting four in the team's season finale.

The Wildcat gals had eight less field goals, but re-paid a debt to Maize in a big way Friday night, Feb. 21, in Maize. The Cats throttled the Eagles, 48-44, in a big game in the CTL.

Mills led the scoring parade with 22 points. Lee Banzet scored 10 points and Turner scored eight.

Two poor quarters chilled the Wildcat jayvee effort at Maize, the Eagles racing to a 52-35 triumph. Mulvane scored only five points in the 1st quarter, four in the 3rd.

Freshmen Melissa Maxey and Cody Watson scored 10 points each and guard Kristi McDowell had seven for the MHS jayvees. Banzet scored four.
