Mulvane girls basketball coach has only one more chance to rack up a win against one of the "big dogs."

Goddard came to Mulvane Tuesday night, Feb. 25, and blasted the Wildcat girls, 59-26, in a Chisholm Trail League game that left Miller and his Cats at 0-7 against the "big dogs" (Maize, Buhler, Goddard and Valley Center) in the league this season.

Against Goddard, the Cats were nearly out of it before they got started. The Lions jumped ahead, 20-6, after one quarter but the Wildcats had their only good run to get back into it in the 2nd quarter. They out-scored Goddard, 10-6, to trail by only 10 at halftime. The Goddard defense took over and held Mulvane to only 10 points the rest of the game.

Sophomore Whitney Becker topped the scoring chart for the Cats with five points. Stephanie Tatum, Kayla Oblinger and Melissa Doerfer scored four points each and senior Lacie Leatherman finished with three points.

The Cats have one more regular season game (tonight at home against Valley) before jumping into the fire in the Douglass Class 4A Sub-State next week. The Cats will be going up against No. 4 seeded El Dorado (6-13) at 7 p.m. Tuesday night, March 4, in first round action.

The Wildcat girls played a half a game at Buhler Friday night, Feb. 21, but lost their shooting touch somewhere in the dressing room before the second half and were sitting ducks for the Crusader gunners after that. Buhler out-scored Mulvane, 32-14, in the last half to roll to a 69-40 victory over the Wildcats.

Guard Abby Sorensen and Shayna Duncan scored 10 points each for the Wildcat girls. Stephanie Tatum had nine points and Melissa Doerfer scored five.
